Harper to discuss his time with the Jets, offer some insights on the current team and what he is up to today

This Sunday, September 28th at 8:00pm, SPORTSTALK1240 hosts Derek Wasiak and John Sweeney will welcome former New York Jets running back Bruce Harper to the show. Harper is expected to join the two-hour program at about 8:30pm, and the interview should take place for approximately 20-25 minutes. The show can be heard on Long Island's AM1240-WGGB, on your iPhone using the TuneIn app, or online at <http://sportstalk1240.com>.

Hosts Derek Wasiak and John Sweeney will speak with Harper about his time playing with the team, his thoughts on the current Jets squad and some of what he is doing today. Harper was a guest on the show back in 2008 with host Rob Kowal.

At the time of his retirement, Harper was second all-time for the Jets in all-purpose yardage. An undrafted free agent out of Kutztown University by the Jets in 1977, Harper became the all-time kick returner in New York Jets history with 5407 yards in kickoff returns. During his NFL career with the New York Jets from 1977-1984 Harper totaled 1829 rushing yards, 2409 receiving yards, 1784 punt return yards and 5407 kick return yards.

SPORTSTALK1240 invites those on Twitter to tweet @SPORTSTALK1240 using the hashtag #AskBruceHarper with their questions for Harper, and hosts Derek and John may pose then to Harper during the live broadcast this Sunday night.
