Interview with Ranger Bernie Nicholls this Sunday, October 12th

Nicholls to discuss his time with the Rangers, offer some insights on the current team and what he is up to today

This Sunday, October 12th at 8:00pm, SPORTSTALK1240 host Bill Donohue will welcome former New York Rangers center Bernie Nicholls to the show. Nicholls is expected to join the show at about 8:45pm, and the interview should take place for approximately 15 minutes. Donohue will speak with Nicholls about his time playing with the team, his thoughts on the current Rangers squad and some of what he is doing today including his new sports stock market app.

The show can be heard on Long Island's AM1240-WGBB, on your iPhone using the TuneIn app, or online at <http://sportstalk1240.com>.

Nicholls was acquired by the Rangers on January 20, 1990 from the Los Angeles Kings in exchange for Tomas Sandstrom and Tony Granato. He played 104 games for the Rangers between 1989-90 and 1991-92, scoring 37 goals along with 73 assists. Nicholls was dealt to the Edmonton Oilers along with Steven Rice and Louie DeBrusk in 1992 as part of a blockbuster deal that saw Mark Messier join the Rangers. Nicholls also spent two seasons with the New Jersey Devils from 1992-93 to 1993-94, playing in 84 games and scoring 24 goals and 32 assists during his time in New Jersey.

Other guests on the program this Sunday will include former Raiders wide receiver Tim Brown and former Penn State quarterbacks coach Jay Paterno.
